FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAVCO ACQUIRES LAND TO BUILD NEW MANUFACTURING FACILITY

Phoenix, AZ - (August 26, 2005) - Cavco Industries, Inc. (NASDAQ:CVCO) announced that the company has purchased land in Phoenix, AZ for the expansion of its homebuilding operations. The parcel, approximately 30 acres, was acquired in a cash transaction and is zoned for industrial use.

"We are pleased that we have secured an excellent site that will enhance opportunities for the continued growth of our company," said Joseph H. Stegmayer, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cavco. "Planning has already begun for construction of a new manufacturing facility at this site," Stegmayer concluded.

Tim Gage, Vice President and General Manager of Cavco Specialty, the company operation that will be headquartered in the new plant stated, "We plan to build the most modern facility in our industry with double the capacity of our present plant and with the capability to produce a virtually limitless variety of designs, types and sizes of park model homes, cabins for vacation and resort living, homes built to the federal HUD code and modular structures for residential and commercial use." Gage continued, "We expect to begin construction immediately after obtaining the appropriate permits and approvals and when completed, we will move most of our current operations from the existing Specialty plant which is located near the new site."

Cavco Industries, Inc., headquartered in Phoenix, is the largest producer of manufactured homes in Arizona, based on wholesale shipments. The company is also a leading producer of park model homes and cabins in the United States.
